Artuso Named Pro Bono Attorney of Year

The Westmoreland Bar Foundation recently named Barbara Artuso, a recently retired Social Security Judge, the 2018 Pro Bono Attorney of the Year. This award is given to the attorney who has provided noteworthy volunteer legal representation of indigent Westmoreland County residents.

Since her retirement as a Social Security law judge, Ms. Artuso graciously donated her time to Pro Bono and represented individuals with Social Security cases primarily in the area of Social Security overpayments and eligibility.

Pro Bono Director David Millstein made the award presentation at the April 2, 2018 Annual Meeting of the Westmoreland Bar Foundation detailing Attorney Artuso's dedication to the profession, even upon retirement, and her zealous representation of her clients.

The Pro Bono Program of Westmoreland County provides free legal representation to those who qualify according to income guidelines and case merit. This past year the members of the Westmoreland Bar Association volunteered their time to represent over 600 individuals in civil matters.
