

FENOGLIETTO NAMED PRO BONO ATTORNEY OF YEAR

The Westmoreland Bar Foundation recently named Rebecca Fenoglietto, a sole practitioner from New Kensington, the 2017 Pro Bono Attorney of the Year. This award is given to the attorney who has provided noteworthy volunteer legal representation of indigent Westmoreland County residents.

Attorney Fenoglietto has been a Pro Bono Custody Attorney for more than 10 years. During that time, she has helped dozens of needy families resolve their custody issues. She recently began volunteering with Pro Bono to resolve divorce cases for those who qualify for free legal representation. Judge Michele Bononi made the award presentation at the April 3, 2017 Annual Meeting of the Westmoreland Bar Foundation detailing Attorney Fenoglietto's dedication to the profession and her zealous representation of her clients.

The Pro Bono Program of Westmoreland County provides free legal representation to those who qualify according to income guidelines and case merit. This past year the members of the Westmoreland Bar Association volunteered their time to represent over 600 individuals in civil matters.
